Should a defect in workmanship and/or material in any item covered by this warranty become evident during the term of the warranty, then upon the consumer following the procedures set forth below, Stingl Products will, at its option, repair or replace such item or part at its own cost and expense.

Stingl Products is not, however, responsible under this warranty for any cost of shipping or transportation of the equipment or parts thereof to or from the Technical Service Department. Also Stingl Products is not liable for any loss of time, inconvenience, incidental expenses such as telephone calls, labor or material charges incurred in connection with the removal or replacement of the equipment, or any other incidental or consequential damages.

DISCLAIMER OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Stingl Products disclaims all other warranties, either express or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with regard to the Product(s), Part(s), and/or any accompanying written materials. Stingl Products in specific disclaims liability for incidental and consequential damages.

PLEASE NOTE: Some states do not allow the execution or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or execution may not apply to you.

Procedure for Obtaining Performance

In order to obtain the benefits of this warranty the consumer who made the original retail purchase must contact the Stingl Products Technical Service Department as soon as possible after discovery of the defect, but in no event later than the expiration date of the warranty period provided in this warranty. Upon receipt of this communication Stingl Products will promptly notify the customer of the address to which the defective item may be shipped. The customer shall then ship the item, freight prepaid, to the address indicated, together with a "RETURN GOODS AUTHORIZATION" form obtained from Technical Services and a brief description of the problems encountered. Unauthorized returns will not be accepted. Freight must be prepaid by customer.
